

Internal Audit's Mission Statement

To provide an independent and objective appraisal of activity for management and to furnish management with the proper analyses, recommendations and information concerning the activities reviewed.